An Unfounded Statement.

As to the charge made on the floor of the senate that the order was secret, the president says, "This was utterly un-founded." In support of this, he says that ten days before the order was made the details of Ryan's application and the probability of its being granted were given wide publicity. He cites in this respect that the Associated Fress cur-ried an account of the matter October 28, 1910, as taken from a typewritten statement issued by the injector depart-ment.

I have no doubt that this was the reason why the order issued took the form it dld. Had the postponement clause been suggested. I would, doubtless, have directed it to be embodied in the order. But the event has proven that it was really not important in this case, for in now nearly nine months only the Controller Railway. & Navigation company has made any serip enjries on the climinated tract."

Whatever the attempts which have been made, no one, as a matter of fact, has secured in Alaska any undue privilege or franchise not completely under the control of Congress, and in all the scandal with which the public has been regaled very few specific instances of corrupt or improper attempts to acquire vested interests in Alaska have been shown by evidence that would stand the test of judicial examination. Notwithstanding this, however, I am in full agreement with the view that every care, both in administration and in legislation, must be observed to prevent the corrupt or unfair acquisition of unstances of Alaska can never become available either to the people of Alaska or to the public of the United States unless reasonable opportunity is granted to those who would invest their money to secure a return proportionate to the risk run in the investment and reasonable under all the circumstances.

"On July 27, 1900, we left Boston for a trip to England and Ireland, taking baby with us. After being in Ireland a few days a nasty tash came out all over his body. We took him to a doctor who said it was chicken pox, and rave us medicine for him. The trouble started in the form of a rash and was all over baby's body, and face, times. It times. It irritated, and he would scratch it with all his might. The consequence was it developed into sores, and we were afraid it would leave nasty scars on his face, "When we reached

England we took baby to another doctor, who said his condition was due to change of food and climate, and gave more medicine. The rash got no better, and it used to itch and burn at night so bad that the child could not sleep. He was completely covered with it at different times. It was at this time that my mother advised us to try Cuticura Soap my mother advised us to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for about tine months the places disappeared. There are not any scars, or other kind of disfigurement, and baby is completely cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We have had no further trouble with baby a skin.
